

An ode to Paderborn

A long long time ago, & I can still remember
What life was like on the other side
Before I got Antje's email, before knowing what this would entail
When governance was just a word

But the day arrived. I did my check-in Free mini bar in Le Meridien
Who's this guy Bucerius?
And is he really paying for us?

But that was then, we've turned the tide
High-brow days and low-down nights
And now we find ourselves inside
The Bucerius Summer School Alumnae

Bye bye to the Paderborn sky,
To an over-eating, under-sleeping Summer School life
The future of the world is in safe hands tonight
'Cos the Class of '09 has arrived
The Class of '09 has arrived

Did Ted write the Hopper book
That the speakers get when they're off the hook
Where is mine I want one too...

And did Wolfgang really rent that car
Or did he drive from Munich on the autobahn
At 250 kmh an hour

Well I'm waiting for the love affairs to begin
Cos Theo said it all happens after Berlin
He's seen it all before
Will we give him some more?

He gave me one minute for my intervention
I could have talked all day, but I didn't have long
So I simply asked Christian what went on
That night on the Reeperbahn

CHORUS

So the time has come to pay our dues,
To Theo Wolfgang and the crew
But to Markus a huge thank you!
From us the alumnae...